

Contents

Introduction: Basics of the functioning of Polish political system
(Jarosław Szymanek) 7

Part I. Historical, political and constitutional background

1. An outline of recent political history (Bartłomiej Zdaniuk) 21
2. The road to a new constitution (Jarosław Szymanek) 44
3. Characteristics of the Constitution of 1997 (Maria Kruk) 62
4. The basic principles of the political system (Grzegorz Kuca) 92

Part II. Democratic processes in action

5. Elections and electoral system (Bartłomiej Michalak) 113
6. Political parties and party system (Bartłomiej Michalak) 134
7. Political activity of the citizens (Mikołaj Cześniak) 160
8. Relations between government and opposition (Zbigniew Machelski) 178
9. System of governance (Jarosław Szymanek) 200
10. Quality of Polish democracy (Zbigniew Machelski) 218

Part III. Constitutional institutions

11. Institutions of direct democracy (Piotr Uziębło) 239
12. The legislative power: the Sejm and the Senate (Jarosław Szymanek) 256
13. The executive power: the President and the Council of Ministers
(Michał Bożek) 276
14. The judicial power: courts and tribunals (Lech Jamróz) 301
15. Constitutional organs of law control and protection (Krzysztof Prokop) 325
16. Sources of law and the legislative process (Monika Florczak-Wątor) 346

Part IV. Spheres of politics

- 17. Religious policy: relationship between state and church
(Wojciech Brzozowski) 371
- 18. Economic policy: social market economy (Adam Krzywoń) 389
- 19. Local policy: local government (Zbigniew Gromek) 406
- 20. European policy: Poland's participation in the European Union
(Aleksandra Kustra) 425