

Table of contents

Acknowledgement	5
Introductory note	15
Glossary of abbreviations	19
Chapter 1. Terrorism as a legal phenomenon	21
1.1. Evolution of terrorist movements	21
1.1.1. The dawn of terrorism	21
1.1.2. Terrorism throughout centuries	22
1.1.3. Fundamentalism: The fiercest face of terrorism	24
a) Al-Qaeda	24
b) ISIS	26
1.2. "Terrorism:" Definition and scope of the term	28
1.2.1. Difficulties in defining	28
1.2.2. Cross-section of definitions	29
1.2.3. Characteristics of terrorism	33
1.3. Aspects of aerial terrorism	39
1.3.1. Introductory notes	40
1.3.2. Why is civil aviation an "attractive target" for terrorists?	41
1.3.3. Types of attacks	43
a) Skyjacking vs. aerial piracy	44
b) Aircraft bombing	51
c) Usage of an aeroplane as a weapon	53
d) Shooting down an aircraft	54
e) Destruction of airport infrastructure	56

f) Cyberattacks in aviation	58
g) Usage of specific types of weapons (e.g. biological, nuclear or chemical)	61
h) Targeting passengers directly	62
1.4. Use of force in response to terrorism	64
1.4.1. Classical approach to the fight against terrorism ..	65
1.4.2. Understanding the “use of force” in relation to terrorism	66
1.4.3. Change of perception	68
1.4.4. “War on terror:” The perspective of civil aviation ..	72
1.5. Role of state terrorism	76
1.5.1. Brief analysis	76
1.5.2. Ensuring safety without infringing human rights ..	78
a) Preventing terrorism: Sources of duty	78
b) Clash of rules of prevention with human rights protection	80
1.5.3. State terrorism in civil aviation	85
1.6. Unmanned aerial vehicles: The future of terrorism (?)	86
1.6.1. UAV: Definition and role as a target of terrorism ..	86
1.6.2. Hijacking a UAV	88
1.6.3. Shooting down a UAV	90
1.6.4. Cyber-attacks	90
Chapter 2. Role of selected international organisations in the fight against aerial terrorism	93
2.1. Introduction	93
2.2. The International Civil Aviation Organisation	93
2.2.1. Common issues	95
2.2.2. The Tokyo Convention	98
a) Circumstances of drafting	98
b) Scope of application	99
c) Jurisdiction	100

d) Powers of the aircraft commander	101
e) Rights and duties of states	103
f) Commentary	104
2.2.3. The Hague Convention and the Montreal Convention	106
a) Circumstances of drafting	106
b) Scope of application	107
c) Jurisdiction	112
d) Extradition	113
e) Other states' duties	114
f) Commentary	115
2.2.4. The Montreal Protocol	117
a) Circumstances of drafting	117
b) Enhancement of the Montreal Convention	117
c) Commentary	118
2.2.5. The Beijing Convention & the Beijing Protocol ..	119
a) Circumstances of drafting	119
b) Scope of application	119
c) Jurisdiction	124
d) Extradition and duties of states	125
e) Commentary	125
2.2.6. The Montreal Protocol of 2014	128
a) Circumstances of drafting	128
b) Enhancement of the Tokyo Convention	128
c) Commentary	131
2.3. United Nations	131
2.3.1. General Assembly	133
a) Pre-9/11 Resolutions	133
b) Post-9/11 Resolutions	138
c) Commentary	140
2.3.2. Security Council	141
a) Resolutions adopted before the 1990s	142

101	b) Post-Lockerbie bombing Resolutions	144
401	c) Resolutions on the 11 September attacks	147
401	d) Post-11 September Resolutions	150
	e) Commentary	155
801	2.4. The European Union	156
801	2.4.1. Overview of early anti-terrorist EU policy	157
701	2.4.2. The role of EU Treaties	160
511	2.4.3. Other anti-terrorist legislative tools enacted by the EU	161
411	a) Counter-Terrorism Strategy: A milestone in the campaign against terrorism	161
611	b) Overview of key secondary law acts related to aerial terrorism	163
711	2.4.4. Regulation No. 300/2008	163
111	a) Scope of application	163
911	b) Common basic standards	164
111	c) Other provisions	166
111	d) Commentary	167
131	2.4.5. Commission Regulation (EC) No. 272/2009 and its amendments: A supplement to the aviation security system	168
151	a) General remarks	168
151	b) Issues covered by the Annex	169
851	c) Commentary	172
171	2.4.6. The PNR Directive: A controversial tool to prevent and eliminate aerial terrorism	174
171	a) The principal purpose of the Directive and the definition of PNR	174
171	b) Conflict with the right to privacy	175
801	c) Anti-terrorist context	177
191	2.4.7. An accurate and up-to-date solution for the terrorist problem: Overview of Directive 2017/541	179

a) Framework Decisions 2002/475/JHA: The first important instrument in anti-terrorist legislation	179
b) Definition of terrorism common for all Member States	180
c) Wider scope of offences	182
d) Jurisdiction and prosecution, system of assistance to victims	184
e) Commentary	185
Chapter 3. Case study	187
3.1. Introduction	187
3.2. Metrojet flight No. 9268: Terror above the Sinai Peninsula	187
3.2.1. Case facts and investigation	187
a) History of the flight	187
b) Investigation	188
3.2.2. Analysis of the terrorist context	190
a) Presence of terrorist factors	190
b) Context of the Egyptian Penal Code	193
3.2.3. Aspects of the attack in the light of sector Conventions	195
a) Montreal Convention	195
b) Possible application of Beijing Convention provisions	197
3.2.4. A reason for retaliation?	199
3.3. The downing of Malaysia Airlines flight 17: Another step towards the intensification of the conflict in eastern Ukraine	202
3.3.1. Factual background	203
a) History of the flight	203
b) Investigation on the crash	204
3.3.2. Was the attack really a terrorist attempt?	207

a) Attribution of attack to a state	208
b) Character of the shooting: Terrorist or not?	210
3.3.3. The offence under the Tokyo-Hague- Montreal-Beijing system conventions	213
a) Applicability of the Montreal Convention	213
b) Hypothetical application of the Beijing Convention	215
3.4. The 2016 Brussels Airport bombing: Europe as a target of the Islamic State	217
3.4.1. Circumstances of the attack and the subsequent investigation	217
3.4.2. Terrorist character of the bombing	218
a) Analysis on the basis of definition	218
b) Perspective of European Union law	221
c) Provisions of sector Conventions	225
3.5. Air France 8969: A hijacking that could have ended in tragedy	227
3.5.1. History of the flight	228
3.5.2. Presence of a terrorist factor	232
3.5.3. Classifying the offence as hijacking	235
a) The Tokyo Convention perspective	235
b) The Hague Convention regulations	237
c) Hypothetical application of the Beijing Protocol	240
3.5.4. The attempt to use A300 as a weapon: A brief analysis	242
Concluding remarks	245
Bibliography	249
Index	269