Detailed contents

| Preface                  | XV    |
|--------------------------|-------|
| Acknowledgements         |       |
| New to this edition      |       |
| Guide to using this book | xviii |
| List of case studies     | XX    |
| About the contributors   |       |
| World map                | xxiv  |

Part One International relations in a global era

| 1 | Introduction: from international politics to world politics  | 5  |
|---|--|----|
|   | 1.1 From international politics to world politics  | 6  |
|   | 1.2 The study of International Relations   | 7  |
|   | 1.3 Theories of world politics   | 8  |
|   | 1.4 Theories and globalization   | 14 |
|   | 1.5 Globalization: myth or reality?  | 15 |
|   | 7.1 Introduction and context   |    |
| 2 | Globalization and global politics  | 19 |
|   | 2.1 Introduction also distinct bas malanottees lat.  | 20 |
|   | 2.2 Making sense of globalization  | 20 |
|   | 2.3 The crisis of globalization and the liberal world order  | 27 |
|   | 2.4 Globalization and the transformation of world politics   | 30 |
|   | 2.5. Conclusion of a language of international relations of the second states of the second s | 33 |

Part Two The historical context

| 3 | The rise of modern international order        | 8.5 Critical t | 39 |
|---|---|----------------|----|
| , |   |                | 40 |
|   |   |                | 40 |
|   | 3.3 How did modern international order em     | ierge?         | 43 |
|   | 3.4 The consequences of the global transfor   |                | 47 |
|   | 3.5 Conclusion and south and the West mode    |                | 52 |
|   |   |                |    |
| 4 | International history of the twentieth centu  | ıry            | 54 |
|   |   | 9.4 Geopoli    | 55 |
|   | 4.2 Modern total war                          |                | 55 |
|   |   |                | 57 |
|   | 4.4 Cold war                                  |                | 59 |
|   | 4.5 Conclusion                                |                | 67 |
|   |   |                |    |
| 5 | From the end of the cold war to a new wor     | ld dis-order?  | 70 |
|   | 5.1 Introduction: the cold war and after      |                | 7  |
|   | 5.2 The United States: exploiting the unipola | ar 'moment'    | 7  |
|   | 5.3 After the USSR: Yeltsin to Putin          |                | 72 |
|   |   |                |    |

|   | 5.4  | Europe: rise and decline?                                       |     | 74 |
|---|------|---|-----|----|
|   | 5.5  | China in a new Asian century?                                   |     | 76 |
|   | 5.6  | A new Global South  |     | 77 |
|   | 5.7  | The Middle East in turmoil: 9/11, the Arab Spring, and after    |     | 79 |
|   | 5.8  | From Obama to Trump to Biden                                    |     | 80 |
|   | 5.9  | Conclusion: beyond the liberal world order?                     |     | 82 |
| 6 | Risi | ing powers and the emerging global order                        | 244 | 85 |
|   | 6.1  | Introduction 210 M draws and ModA                               |     | 86 |
|   | 6.2  | The post-cold war order   |     | 86 |
|   | 6.3  | The US order under challenge                                    |     | 87 |
|   | 6.4  | Three questions about the power of rising powers                |     | 90 |
|   | 6.5  | Debating the impact of rising powers on international relations |     | 93 |
|   | 6.6  | Beyond the BRICS: emerging powers in the twenty-first century   |     | 95 |
|   | 6.7  | Conclusion politic notational politic notational                |     | 98 |
|   |      |   |     |    |

Part Three Theories of world politics

|   | 1.4 Theories and globalization and state of the control of the con |     |
|---|--|-----|
| 7 | Liberal internationalism   | 103 |
|   | 7.1 Introduction and context   | 104 |
|   | 7.2 Founding ideas of nineteenth-century liberal internationalism  | 105 |
|   | 7.3 Internationalism and institutionalism: peace through law   | 107 |
|   | 7.4 The challenges confronting liberal internationalism  | 109 |
|   | 7.5 Conclusion: incomplete, but indispensable, internationalism  | 112 |
| 3 | Marxist theories of international relations  | 116 |
|   | 8.1 Introduction   | 117 |
|   | 8.2 The essential elements of Marxist theories of world politics   | 119 |
|   | 8.3 Marx internationalized: from imperialism to world-systems theory   | 121 |
|   | 8.4 Gramscianism   | 123 |
|   | 8.5 Critical theory to a language meshod to earlied 1.   | 125 |
|   | 8.6 New Marxism  | 127 |
|   | 8.7 Conclusion are bio languagement (asiyotai H. C.E.  | 129 |
| 9 | Realism  | 132 |
|   | 9.1 Introduction   | 133 |
|   | 9.2 Fundamental ideas  | 133 |
|   | 9.3 Realism in historical perspective and land land land land  | 136 |
|   | 9.4 Geopolitics  | 139 |
|   | 9.5 Multiple realisms?   | 140 |
|   | 9.6 Conclusion engine to bind < E. F.  | 145 |
|   | 62 A.4 Cold war strigin named 2.1  | 15  |
| 0 | Feminism   |     |
|   | 10.1 Introduction  | 148 |
|   | 10.2 What is feminism? The book and to be and more   | 148 |
|   | 10.3 What is feminist International Relations theory?  | 152 |
|   | 10.4 Gender and power minings sent 8 belief and 5.8  | 154 |
|   |  |     |

241

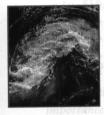

|    |  |       | 3    |
|----|--|-------|------|
|    | 10.5 Four feminist International Relations theories (1009) Isolated Isolated   |       | 155  |
|    | 10.6 Conclusion and additional field |       | 160  |
|    |  |       |      |
| 11 | Postcolonial and decolonial approaches   |       | 162  |
|    | 11.14 Introduction Spokalization? Who wins and who loses from globalization?   |       | 163  |
|    | 11.2 What are postcolonial and decolonial approaches?  |       | 163  |
|    | 11.3 Where did postcolonial and decolonial ideas come from?  |       | 166  |
|    | 11.4 What are the main ideas underpinning postcolonial and   |       |      |
|    | decolonial thought?  |       | 169  |
|    | 11.5 Postcolonial and decolonial approaches to studying world politics   |       | 172  |
|    | 11.6 Decolonization: the struggle continues? In the beautiful and beauti |       | 175  |
|    | 11.7 Conclusion and a sender relations and sender relations and sender relations.  |       | 176  |
|    |  |       |      |
| 12 |  |       | 179  |
|    | 12.1 Introduction was supplied by a supplied |       | 180  |
|    | 12.2 Studying the social world   |       | 180  |
|    | 12.3 Poststructuralism as a political philosophy   |       | 181  |
|    | 12.4 Deconstructing state sovereignty  |       | 186  |
|    | 12.5 Identity and foreign policy   |       | 189  |
|    | 12.6 Conclusion 25 March 25 March 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19   |       | 192  |
|    |  |       |      |
| 13 | a series of the communication  | ••••• |      |
|    | 13.1 Introduction  |       | 195  |
|    | 13.2 The rise of constructivism  |       | 195  |
|    | 13.3 Constructivism  |       | 197  |
|    | 13.4 Constructivism and global change  |       | 203  |
|    | -13.5 Conclusion Separation and English Separation Conclusion  |       | 207  |
|    |  |       |      |
| -  | Part Four Structures and processes   |       |      |
| F  | 19.6 Theoretical approaches to international law norsulono 6.55  |       | . 40 |
| 14 | War and world politics   |       | 213  |
| 26 | 14.1 Introduction  |       | 214  |
|    |  |       | 215  |
|    | 14.3 War: international and global   |       | 216  |
|    | 14.4 Clausewitz's philosophy of war a respection of the many see that W. S. C.   |       | 219  |
|    | 14.5 War, state, and society in the West   |       | 221  |
|    | 14.6 War, state, and society in the Global South   |       | 224  |
|    | 14.7 Conclusion Shupiyadad Of saylanu swinto wolf 200  |       | 226  |
|    |  |       |      |
| 15 | International and global security  |       | 228  |
|    | The United Nations   |       | 229  |
|    | 15.2 What is security?   |       | 229  |
|    | 15.3 The traditional approach to national security is profind lend A S. 13   |       | 231  |
|    | 15.4 Alternative approaches another and the maintena approaches another than 15.13   |       | 232  |
|    | 15.5 Globalization and the 'return of geopolitics'   |       | 235  |
|    | 15.6 Globalization and the future of world order and belief and a 15   |       | 239  |

15.7 Conclusion

| 16 | Global political economy   | 244        |
|----|--|------------|
|    | 16.1 Introduction China in a new Asian censury in moisulance à 01  | 245        |
|    | 16.2 Approaches to IPE w Global South  | 246        |
|    | 16.3 What drives globalization? arbs organ lain oloop basals in oloop to 91 a 11   |            |
|    | 16.4 Who wins and who loses from globalization?  | 253        |
|    | 16.5 The future of globalization solopely bas landlosted on stadW S. I.I.  | 257        |
|    | 13.3 Where did postcolonial and decolonial ideas commoisulano 3.31   | 258        |
|    |  |            |
| 17 | Gender   |            |
|    | 17.1   Postcolonial and decolonial approaches to study noitoubornal in.7.1   | 261        |
|    | 17.2 Sex and gender in international perspective and assimplicated a FI  | 261        |
|    | 17.3 Global gender relations   | 263        |
|    | 17.4 Gendering global politics   |            |
|    | 17.5 Gendering global security [18.02] and the | 268        |
|    | 17.6 Gendering the global economy  | 271        |
|    | 12.2 Studying the social world noisuland 7.7.1   | 274        |
| 10 | 12.3 Poststructuralism as a political philosophy   | 27/        |
| 18 | Race in world politics   |            |
|    | 18.2 Histories of race in world politics   | 277        |
|    | 18.3 Thinking through race   | 277283 |
|    |  |            |
|    | 18.4 Contemporary manifestations of race in world politics land laborations  |            |
|    | 18.5 Conclusion  The halfs are uniformized by the part of Legislation and the Legislation and  | 290        |
| 19 | International law  | 293        |
|    | 13.4 Constructivism and global change notice notice of the Constructivism and global change  | 294        |
|    | 19.2 Order and institutions was of international and analysis no. 2.81   | 294        |
|    | 19.3 The modern institution of international law   | 295        |
|    | 19.4 From international to supranational law?  | 300        |
|    | 19.5 The laws of war   |            |
|    | 19.6 Theoretical approaches to international law   | 303        |
|    | 19.7 Conclusion 2011 September 2011  | 305        |
|    |  |            |
| 20 | International organizations in world politics  | 308        |
|    | 20.1 Introduction ladolg bns lanouametri aw EAT  | 309        |
|    | 20.2 What are international organizations? adopted a subsecution 4.81  | 309        |
|    | 20.3 Why are international organizations important? The public part of the control of the contro | 313        |
|    | 20.4 Why do states create IOs? addid and my places bors, attack your delay   | 314        |
|    | 20.5 How can we analyse IO behaviour?  | 319        |
|    | 20.6 Conclusion  | 320        |
|    |  |            |
| 21 | The United Nations   | 323        |
|    | 15.2 What is security?   | 324        |
|    | 21.2 A brief history of the United Nations and its principal organs  | 325        |
|    | 21.3 The United Nations and the maintenance of international peace   |            |
|    | and security Vision and the return of seopolitics (W Sytring and security Vision and the return of seopolitics (W) and security Vision and Securit | 329        |
|    | 21.4 The United Nations and economic and social questions  | 334        |
|    | 21.5 Conclusion Gender and poster moleulance 7.3.1   | 336        |

| 22 | NGOs in world politics   | 339 |
|----|--|-----|
|    | 22.1 Introduction 28.4 The regulation of global finance  | 340 |
|    | 22.2 What are NGOs?  | 341 |
|    | 22.3 The growing importance of TNGOs   | 348 |
|    | 22.4 Conclusion and the second | 353 |
|    |  |     |
| 23 | Regionalism in international affairs   | 355 |
|    | 23.1 Introduction among la ladolg or languagest most an atomic & US  | 356 |
|    | 23.2 Regional cooperation and regional integration   | 357 |
|    | 23.3 Regional cooperation in a global context and a supplied to the  | 361 |
|    | 23.4 The process of European integration   | 367 |
|    | 23.5 Conclusion  | 371 |
|    |  |     |

Part Five International issues

| 24  | Environmental issues   | 377 |
|-----|--|-----|
| ē G | 24.1 Introduction 24.616 notinetiloig non to notitiova 4.08  | 378 |
|     | 24.2 Environmental issues on the international agenda: a brief history   | 379 |
|     | 24.3 The functions of international environmental cooperation  | 382 |
|     | 24.4 Climate change of but more than the language and a contract of the language of the langua | 386 |
|     | 24.5 The environment and International Relations theory  | 390 |
|     | 24.6 Conclusion securior ladely bus sensus notion, metahous 4.5.1 Excess   | 392 |
|     | to a mild 3. The changing meanings of NSD since 1918's auto 1, alluitely annihila  |     |
| 25  | Global health  | 394 |
|     | 25.1 Introduction: why did health become a global issue?   | 395 |
|     | 25.2 Global health governance and administration of the second of the se | 396 |
|     | 25.3 Health financing and vertical and horizontal approaches to global health  | 400 |
|     | 25.4 Global health security  | 401 |
|     | 25.5 Medicalization of security and doldw no anotherwise such and E.S.E.   | 404 |
|     | 25.6 Conclusion Trache Anna A workboyle and memory and the SE votes and more book as SE  | 406 |
| 26  | Refugees and forced migration  | 409 |
|     | 26.1 Introduction  | 410 |
|     | 26.2 Concept production and the politics of international protection   | 411 |
|     | 26.3 Types of forced migration inside the half the state and not expect the state of the state o | 414 |
|     | 26.4 The international refugee regime and institutionalized racism   | 421 |
|     | 26.5 Conclusion in a vitage and the transmit to any metalog at 2000 and the Estate Conclusion.   | 423 |
| 27  | Poverty, hunger, and development   | 425 |
| com | 27.1 Introduction  | 426 |
|     | 27.2 Poverty   | 426 |
|     | 27.3 Hunger  | 429 |
|     | 27.4 Development   | 431 |
|     | 27.5 Conclusion  | 438 |
| 28  | Global trade and global finance  | 441 |
|     | 28.1 Introduction  | 442 |
|     | 28.2 The globalization of trade and finance  | 443 |
|     |  |     |

xiv

Detailed contents

|          |    | 28.3 | The regulation of global trade   | 446    |
|----------|----|------|--|--------|
|          |    | 28.4 | The regulation of global finance   | 450    |
|          |    |      | 22.2 What are NGOs7  | 453    |
|          |    |      | 22.3 The growing importance of TNGOs (not assisted by Savinb JarlW).   |        |
|          | 29 | Terr | orism and globalization  | 456    |
|          |    | 29.1 | Introduction   | 457    |
|          |    | 29.2 | Regionalism in international affairs   | 85 457 |
|          |    | 29.3 | Terrorism: from transnational to global phenomenon (1968-2001)   | 459    |
|          |    | 29.4 | Terrorism: the impact of globalization   | 460    |
|          |    | 29.5 | Globalization, technology, and terrorism   | 463    |
|          |    | 29.6 | Combating terrorism  | 468    |
|          |    | 29.7 | Conclusion per relations golduland 2.8.5   | 470    |
|          |    |      |  |        |
|          | 30 | Prol | iferation of weapons of mass destruction   | 473    |
|          |    |      | at Five Vinternational issues Vinternational issues  | 474    |
|          |    |      | WMD technology and its spread  | 474    |
|          |    | 30.3 | Theoretical debates about nuclear proliferation and Islammonival   | 480    |
|          |    | 30.4 | Evolution of non-proliferation efforts   | 483    |
|          |    | 30.5 | 24.2 Environmental issues on the international agenda noisulanO  | 486    |
|          |    |      |  |        |
|          | 31 |      | onalism, national self-determination, and international relations  | 488    |
|          |    |      | 24.5 The environment and International Relations the noticubortal  | 489    |
|          |    | 31.2 | Nationalism, nation-states, and global politics  | 489    |
|          |    |      | The changing meanings of NSD since 1918  | 495    |
|          |    | 31.4 | Conclusion disadilation disadil | 501    |
|          |    |      |  |        |
|          | 32 | Hum  | an rights  | 505    |
|          |    |      | 25.3 Health financing and vertical and honzontal app notical and   | 506    |
|          |    | 32.2 | The global human rights structure at a wythuper dissert ladol page 4.25  | 506    |
|          |    |      | The core assumptions on which human rights are based   | 510    |
|          |    | 32.4 | Doing human rights advocacy  | 515    |
|          |    | 32.5 | Conclusion   | 518    |
|          |    |      |  |        |
|          | 33 | Hum  | anitarian intervention in world politics   | 521    |
|          |    |      | 26.2 Concept production and the politics of internati notipubortnl   | 522    |
|          |    |      | The case for humanitarian intervention tangim beyond to segy? A 25   | 522    |
|          |    |      | The case against humanitarian intervention   | 524    |
|          |    | 33.4 | The 1990s: a golden era of humanitarian activism?  | 526    |
|          |    | 33.5 | The responsibility to protect (R2P)  | 528    |
|          |    | 33.6 | Poverty hunger and development   | 534    |
|          |    |      |  |        |
| Slossary | 27 | The  | 27.2. Foverby small ball to  | 537    |
|          |    |      | 273 Hunger s notrabates  | 559    |
|          |    |      | 27.4. Development  |        |
|          |    |      |  |        |