More information on all of these materials and how to use them can be found later in these Introduction pages.

The Talking point at the end of the unit provides the opportunity for students to discuss a range of business concepts, approaches and ideas and how they might apply these in their own work. All of the topics relate to the unit theme and provide another opportunity for students to use the language from the unit. The Talking point generally follows a three-part structure (a short text, listening or infographic), Discussion, Task.

The course includes authentic interviews with leading business experts from Saïd Business School, Oxford. Each unit includes a 'Who is Business Result?' section, which provides a range of authentic materials for students to work with.

Each lesson includes a range of authentic materials for students to work with. The materials are designed to be used in a variety of ways, including as a basis for discussion, role-play, and writing practice. Each lesson ends with a 'Practically speaking' section, which provides a range of phrases and expressions for students to use in their work.
